MRS. LORILLARD JR. COMMITS SUICIDE

Found Asphyxiated in Bath Room at Home in Washington.

Takes Her Own Life in a Fit of Temporary Aberration—Was a Leader of Washington Society.

Washington, March 26.—Mrs. Caroline Hamilton Lorillard, wife of Pierre Lorillard, of New York, was found dead yesterday in the bathroom of her Washington residence, 2020 Hillyer Place, N. W. It was not until yesterday afternoon that the fact of Mrs. Lorillard's death became known. After an autopsy by deputy coroner Glazebrook and an investigation by coroner Nevitt the latter gave a certificate of death by suicide.

Mrs. Lorillard killed herself by inhaling illuminating gas. One gas jet in the bathroom was turned on and there are other circumstances, which coroner Nevitt declined to "make known, tending to show that Mrs. Lorillard had taken her own life. The theory advanced by Dr. N. F. Cuthbert, family physician of the Lorillards was that Mrs. Lorillard had committed suicide in a fit of temporary aberration of mind.

The news of Mrs. Lorillard's suicide created a sensation in Washington society. Wednesday night Mr. and Mrs. Lorillard were guests at a dinner given by Mrs. Mary Scott Townsend in her handsome residence at Massachusetts avenue and Twenty-second street in honor of Lady Paget of England.

Mrs. Lorillard was found in the bathroom at about 8:30 o'clock yesterday morning. She was lying face downward on a rug beside the bathtub. No report was made to Police Headquarters until about half-past 2 o'clock, when coroner Nevitt sent notice that Mrs. Lorillard had committed suicide.

WOMAN POISONER MAKES CONFESSION

Madame Popouva Claims to Have Poisoned 300 Men in Last 30 Years.

(Special from United Press.) Samar, Russia, March 26.—The police to-day began a thorough investigation of the career of Mme. Popouva who is a wholesale murder of undesirable husbands. The woman confesses a killing 200 men in the last thirty years but the authorities give this as a bit of wild romancing. They admit however that the woman's record is likely to prove her the greatest murderer in Russian history.

The prisoner says her own unhappy married life led her to commit the idea of ridding other unfortunate wives of cruel husbands and she started on her career of crime. She offered her service to any wife agreeing to kill the husband by poisoning and charging but a small fee. She says her operations have extended over a large part of the Samara province.

The police say that no woman could have carried out the career that Mme. Popouva claims to have led, without almost immediate discovery.

DUKE OF ABRUZZI SAILS FOR ORIENT

(Special from United Press.)

Marseilles, Mar. 26.—The Duke of the Abruzzi sailed today on the Oceanic for Bombay from which point he will set out on his Himalayan exploration. A large party of the Duke's friends were at the pier to bid him good-bye. Most of the Duke's baggage and equipment were shipped several days ago. It is indicated by friends that the Duke's love for Miss Elkins, daughter of the American Senator is as strong as ever.

AN ITCHING PALM

No Cure for It. Other Forms of Itching Preferable.

There is no cure for an itching palm—the money kind. Even psoriasis, the new skin discovery, cannot help it. But when it comes to eczema, the most annoying of itching skin troubles, psoriasis will stop the itching at once and cure the worst cases in a few days. So with hives, rash, scabies, split toes, piles, and scaly scalp, all of which are different forms of eczema, accompanied by severe itching and caused by imperfect digestion and careless diet. Psoriasis comes in two-dollar jars, but fifty cents' worth will answer in curing any of the diseases mentioned. It can be had of any druggist. Jennie Hamilton's Pharmacy makes a specialty of it.

That results are immediate will be amply demonstrated overnight by the use of the experimental sample which the Emergency Laboratories, 32 West Twenty-fifth Street, New York City, will send free by mail, in plain wrapper, to any one who will write for it.

SPRING'S FASHION SHOW

At The Great Credit Clothing House of Caesar Misch, Inc.

The formal spring opening which began yesterday at the store of Caesar Misch, Inc., surpassed for beauty of style and texture of fabrics, anything ever before attempted, and fully equals that of any limited charge house. There are displayed beautiful two and three piece suits and dresses for ladies and misses, gorgeous millinery, showing the latest accepted New York styles in shapes and trimmings, hand-some, well put together suits and overcoats for men, and a most complete showing of clothing for the boy. The shoe department with its attractive lasts and leathers for the whole family, received much favorable attention. The prices were noted to be surprisingly low, and the best part of the whole display is that every desirable garment, hat or pair of shoes, and in short everything displayed, is easily within the means of every looker-on, as Caesar Misch, Inc., extends "cheerful credit" to all who ask for it. It is a fact, hard for some to realize, that a small weekly sum set aside will provide clothing as good or better than that worn by the person with ready cash to pay for whatever suits their fancy. Many who come to look remain to buy, but everyone is welcome and none are importuned to purchase against their inclination. This spring's display establishes more firmly than ever the fact that Caesar Misch, Inc., is by far the greatest of all of New England's Credit Clothing Houses.

Making a Bolt For It.
The monetary of crime in the police stations is relieved oftener than is generally supposed by an infusion of unexpected humor. This happy faculty of tickling the magistrate's sense of humor won a prisoner in a police station his liberty the other day.

The prisoner had told the magistrate that he was a locksmith by trade, and the magistrate asked:

"Well, were you on business in this gambling house at 2 o'clock in the morning?"

"Yes, your honor," replied the prisoner calmly. "I was making a bolt for the door."
